

B.U.I.L.D. Meeting
Minutes – August 1, 2006

“The way a team plays as a whole determines its success.
You may have the greatest bunch of individual stars in the world, but if they don't play together, the club won't be worth a dime.”
Babe Ruth

Members present: Terri Scholting, Dee Arias, Lexie Scholting, Nancy McManis, John Harrington, Irina Harrington, Ken Kratky, Nancy McManis, Kari Wockenfuss, Todd Ray, Evelyn Hans, Jason Rohrs, Mike Krambeck, Kathy Copple.

Guests present: Rick Setchell.

A “How's Business” discussion was held.

Minutes of the July 11, 2006 meeting were approved. Treasure's report was approved with a balance of $909.00.

Old Business: The BBQ Contest has been postponed until next year, because too many potential contestants feel that a contest that isn't judged isn't a good idea.

Evelyn Hans reported that her son Travis, from Big Red Lighting, would be interested in helping with the building lights and would only expect to be paid the cost of materials. Joan will be contacted to coordinate with him.

Kathy Copple volunteered to help the presentation committee with the flag pole for a memorial for Lynn Berner-Smith.

Alan Mueller and Terri will meet with Bellino in September, to discuss the possibility of a fireworks display for the city, possibly during Louisville Daz.

Nancy M., Dee and John H. will attend the JayCees meeting on August 15, for coordination of Louisville Daz 2007.

Welcome Committee: No report.

Events Committee: Last Hot Sunday in July was discussed. Overall, it was felt to be a success and kinks are being worked out every year.

Economic Development: No report.

Presentation Committee: No report.

Marketing Committee: Lexie reported about the Last Hot Sunday in July advertising. All members were curious as to which was the most effective, but felt that information would not be known unless a survey was circulated. Lexie and the events committee will look into the idea.

New Business: A thank you note was passed around from Lynn's family.

John H. is working on a calendar of B.U.I.L.D. meetings and was reminded that it was voted on to keep all meetings in the morning.

At the last meeting, the B.U.I.L.D. website responses were discussed and they were printed out and brought to the meeting today. Dee will read through and summarize at the next meeting.

Kari invited the B.U.I.L.D. members to have their next meeting at the new Louisville Assisted Living Facility next month. The meeting will be at 7:15 a.m. to assure we're out of the dining room in time for the new residents.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:30 a.m.

The next meeting will be on September 12, 2006 at the Louisville Assisted Living Facility at 7:15 a.m.
